

PUBLIC

LANDS

HELPING HANDS FOR AMERICA'S LANDS

National Public Lands Day is the nation's largest hands-on volunteer effort to improve and enhance the public lands that American's enjoy.

Get involved on Public Lands Day
at DuPuis Management Area!

September 30, 2006

10:00 a.m. until 2:00 p.m.

Go native at DuPuis:

Learn about Florida's native plants!

10:00-11:30

Volunteers of all ages will install native plants at the Visitors' Center.

11:30-1:00

All volunteers receive a free BBQ lunch!

FAU's Friends of DuPuis will sell native plants and distribute Educational materials.

Guided tours of the Habitat Trail will be offered.

1:00-2:00

End the day with an exciting presentation

"Gardening for Wildlife with Florida native plants"

by Alana Edwards (FAU's Center for Environmental Studies).

This event is free.

DuPuis is located 2 miles east of Port Mayaca or 7 miles west of the junction for 710 on Hwy 76.

The Visitors' Center entrance is at Gate 5. 23500 SW Kanner Hwy. Canal Point 33438

Public Lands Day is sponsored by the South Florida Water Management District and coordinated by Florida Atlantic University's Center for Environmental Studies.

